

My husband, my daughter, and I choose K-Love as our first choice for music and news. Without this family centered, family safe radio station we and others would not have a choice. Choice is an important part of our society. Please don't leave us without K-Love and this choice.